MILK CRUST

When our baby boy was three months old, he had the milk crust very badly on his head, so that all the hair came out, and itched so bad, he made it bleed by scratching it. I got a cake of CUTICURA SOAP and a box of CUTICURA (ointment). I washed with CUTICURA and put a thin cap on his head, and before I had used half a box it was entirely cured, and his hair commenced to grow out nicely.

President McKinley the Guest of Atlanta.

The Central Figure of the Great Peace Jubilee.

The Cabinet and Several War Heroes With Him.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 14.—Without a single hitch in arrangements and after a trip pleasant in every way, the presidential party arrived in Atlanta at 8 o'clock this morning over the Southern railway.

It was daylight before Georgia was reached and the snow clad fields that marked yesterday's passage gave way to the warm red earth of the more southern state.

The morning was crisp and colder than most of the party anticipated.

The president took breakfast with Mrs. McKinley in his own car while the cabinet officers and others walked through the train early and breakfasted in the dining car.

Small groups of early rising Georgians watched the train as it flew past the wayside stations. At Gainesville, where a short stop was made, about 200 persons were at the station and inspected the train with curiosity. From there on to Atlanta there came waving welcomes, with an occasional cheer, but there was nothing in the nature of a demonstration.

It was exactly 8 o'clock when the train bearing the distinguished guests who are to attend the peace jubilee entered the union depot in Atlanta. A large crowd was present, despite the cold weather, and a rousing cheer went up as the train came to a standstill.

The sun shone brightly and, although the air was keen, did much to dispel the chill.

Gen. Joe Wheeler was the first to alight. A strong chorus of cheers greeted the distinguished Alabamian as, accompanied by his daughter and the members of the reception committee, he made his way to a carriage. When the president appeared on the rear platform of his car a hearty cheer was given him, breaking forth with renewed vigor an instant later when Mrs. McKinley came out of the car. The welcome to the members of the cabinet was very cordial. The ladies of the jubilee committee extended a greeting to the ladies of the presidential party, after which the president and those accompanying him were escorted to the Kimball house. The party included the following:

The president and Mrs. McKinley, the secretary of the treasury and Mrs. Gage, the secretary of war and Mrs. Gage, the secretary of the navy and Miss Long, the postmaster general and Mrs. Smith, the secretary of agriculture and Miss Wilson, secretary to the president, J. Addison Porter and Mrs. Porter, Assistant Secretary Cortelyou and B. F. Barnes, executive clerk; Maj. Gen Joe Wheeler and Miss Anna Wheeler, Maj. Gen. Henry W. Lawton and Mrs. Lawton, Captain Schere, United States navy, Dr. P. M. Rixey, United States navy.

The presidential party were at once assigned to the apartments set aside for them, and the president, who was early astir on the train, devoted the morning to resting.

Mrs McKinley also retired to recuperate for the coming duties of the day. Among those who arrived during the morning were Gen S. B. M. Young, commanding the Second army corps, and staff, from Augusta; Hon. Geo. R. Peck, the Misses Peck and Miss Kohlsaat, of Chicago; A. J. Earling and Miss Earling, of Chicago, and Eli Gage, son of the secretary.

At 12 o'clock the gentlemen of the president's party partook of luncheon in the chief executive's apartments, while the ladies at the same hour were the guests of the ladies of the jubilee committee at a delightfully informal breakfast in the ladies' ordinary of the hotel.

A few minutes before 1 o'clock the president's party were assigned to carriages and escorted by fifty mounted police and the members of Governor Candler's staff, started for the capitol.

Guns boomed the presidential salute as the chief executive ascended the steps of the capitol. At the Hunter street entrance the president was met by a committee composed of Colonel William G. Obear, acting adjutant general representing Governor Candler; Senator Hand, representing the senate, and Representative Hardwick, of the house, and conducted to the governor's parlor. Here he was received by Governor Candler and the state house officials, after which the general assembly in joint session, received the president and party and the governor.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

President McKinley made an address before the legislature, speaking as follows:

"Sectional lines no longer mar the map of the United States. Sectional feeling no longer holds back the love we bear each other. Fraternity is the national anthem, sung by a chorus of forty-five states and our territories at home and beyond the seas. The union is once more the common atlas of our love and loyalty, our devotion and sacrifice. The old flag again waves over us in peace with new glories which your sons and ours have this year added to its sacred folds.

"What cause we have for rejoicing, saddened only by the fact that so many of our brave men fell on the field or sickened and died from hardships and exposure, and others returning, bringing wounds and disease from which they will long suffer.

"The memory of the dead will be precious a legacy and the disabled will be the nation's care.

"A nation which cares for its disabled soldiers as we have always done will never lack defenders. The notional cemeteries for those who have fell in battle are proof that the dead as well as the living have our love. What an army of silent sentinels we have and with what loving care their graves are kept.

"Every soldier's grave made during our unfortunate civil war is a tribute to American valor. And while, when those graves were made, we differed widely about the future of this government these differences were long ago settled by the arbitrament of arms and the time has now come in the evolution of sentiment and feeling under the providence of God, when in the spirit of fraternity we should share with you in the care of the graves of the confederate soldiers.

"The cordial feeling now happily existing between the north and south prompts this gracious act, and if it needed further justification it is found in the gallant loyalty to the Union and the flag, so conspicuously shown in the year just passed by the sons and grandsons of these heroic dead.

"What a glorious future awaits us if unitedly, wisely and bravely we face the new problems now pressing upon us, determined to solve them for right and humanity."

FIX THE FURNACES.

Expert John Smead Arrives From Toledo to Remedy Some Defects in the Heating System.

The heating system of the Lakeside school building has been seriously at fault and these cold days have brought upon the teachers and pupils of that school much discomfort if not suffering.

The school does not depend upon gas for fuel, the burners having been replaced by grates for the use of coal. During the cold weather Superintendent Ross Lewin has watched closely the workings of the system, finding that a great deal of coal was burned, lots of heat was generated, but somehow the heat was not distributed about the building. Most of the heat found its way up the chimney and skyward. This might suit the coal dealer but not the teachers, pupils or school board, so John Smead, a furnace expert of Toledo, Ohio, was sent for and he arrived this morning to probe the mystery. Mr. Smead was formerly connected with the Isaac Smead Heating and Ventilating works, a concern that is no longer in existence.

Pension Matters Again Up in the Senate.

Further Restrictions Set on Private Bills.

Consideration of the Lodge Immigration Bill Voted Down in the Lower Branch.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The senate opened today with a protest upon the part of Mr. Gallinger, chairman of the committee on pensions, against the practice of senators of introducing pension bills in cases pending in the pension office. He said the committee would not consider such bills and that it was useless to present them.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The pension appropriation bill was reported to the house today and Mr. Barney, republican, of Wisconsin, gave notice that he would call it up tomorrow. The senate bill to regulate the sitting of United States courts within the district of South Carolina was passed.

Mr. Danford, republican, of Ohio, then called up the Lodge immigration bill, which was passed by the senate at the last session and which has since been upon the speaker's table. Mr. Bartholdt, republican, of Missouri, raised the question of consideration against it, and Mr. Danford demanded the ayes and nays, which were ordered.

TWO THIEVES

One of Them Admits His Guilt and the Mayor This Morning Bound the Men Over to Court.

Sheriff Melching yesterday received word that during Monday night the Ridenour general store at Dixon, on the state line, had been robbed. He sent a deputy and the bloodhounds to the scene. Shoes, rubbers, socks, gloves, neckties, etc., had been stolen. The hounds were given the trail and started along the track to Fort Wayne, but the robbers were not found. Last night Sheriff Melching telephoned a description of the stolen stuff to the police station. Sergeant Harkenrider went to the tramp cell and commenced to search the "hoboes." Two of them, named John Taylos and Fred Wilson, wore brand new shoes and rubbers, and with them they had gloves, ties, keys, etc. They were arrested and finally acknowledged that they had entered the Ridenour store and stolen the stuff. The thieves were arraigned in police court this morning and waived examination. Mayor Scherer fixed bond at $1,000 each and the fellows went to jail. They had no money.

Two vagrants, Philip Lewis and Thomas Barnes, were sent to jail to serve fifteen days each.

GOODS IDENTIFIED.

Ephrain Ridenour and Joseph McIntosh were in the city today from Dixon and Mr. Ridenour identified the stolen property. McIntosh also identified some property stolen from his saloon.

On Taylor and Wilson were found a razor, a foot rule a spring-back knife and two blue shirts which were stolen from the Ridenour store several weeks ago.

The sheriff is convinced that the prisoners are members of a gang of burglars and that they robbed the place three weeks ago.

SAILED FOR HAVANA.

A Fort Wayne Boy to Serve Uncle Sam in Cuba.

George Graffe Enlisted in the Second Illinois Regiment, Which Sailed Last Friday.

George Graffe, a son of C. F. Graffe, is one of the Fort Wayne boys to serve Uncle Sam on Cuban shores. Many brave young soldiers who left Fort Wayne expecting to offer their lives in behalf of their country on that island never got further than Tampa, Fla., where they were held for weeks in an unhealthy region awaiting orders. Some of those brave boys did not return alive.

The last Fort Wayne boy to serve in that country will not have active warfare to face but he will have to meet other dangers, such as the climatic influences and army life in general. Mr. Graffe enlisted in the Second Illinois infantry, which sailed last Friday for Havana under orders from General Lee. The young soldier has promised to write home concerning his impressions and experiences in Cuba.

No higher tribute to Leland T. Powers' ability as an entertainer is needed than the applause and commendation he met at the hands of a cultured Fort Wayne audience at Princess rink last evening. His impersonations of the characters of David Copperfield were all adapted true to the original. In comedy he was genuinely funny both in speech and gesture and throughout the whole entertainment he was so natural as to put reality and life into the characters and incidents of Dickens' most interesting book. The Woman's Club League is to be congratulated upon the high standard of last night's entertainment.

Frank W. Hunter, of Chicago, is in the city visiting relatives. Mr. Hunter was in the naval forces about Cuba during the entire Cuban campaign. He was an engineer under Captain Delehanty and Lieutenant Blue on the gunboat Suwanee, but during the battle of Santiago was on the Brooklyn, Admiral Schley's battleship. The Suwanee was the most active boat in the Cuban campaign and Mr. Hunter tells some interesting stories of the battles and narrow escapes the gunboat had. Captain Delehanty was a personal and intimate friend of Admiral Dewey and ranks as one of the bravest captains on the sea.

The late, but interesting, announcement reached here this morning that Fred O. Stringer, of this city, was married on October 10 to Miss Nellie Richardson, of Franklin, Ind. Mr. Stringer wooed, won and wedded without taking the pains to inform his Fort Wayne friends of his intentions, and they might have gone on in blissful ignorance but for the tidings which just came.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride, and shortly thereafter Mr. and Mrs. Stringer went to Indianapolis, where they will reside permanently, as Mr. Stringer has secured a good position there in the department store of Charles Mayer & Co. The bride is reported to be of high family connections and is possessed of beauty, graces and talent. The groom was raised and educated in Fort Wayne, being a son of E. T. Stringer and a brother of Charles Stringer, of the Rastetter offices.

THE HAVOC IS GREAT

Several Men Killed and Five are Yet Missing.

Was Being Subjected to a Hydraulic Test.

Eight Million Gallons of Water Burst the Heavy Steel Plates Like Paper, Flooding the Vicinity.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—When dawn lighted up the district devastated by the collapsing of the big gas tank of the Consolidated Gas company, a spectacle of ruin was presented.

Twenty-first street is barricaded by twisted and bent iron stachions, girders and uprights piled to a height of twenty-five feet. Twentieth street is also filled with bricks, household goods and timbers piled high in one promiscious mass. Building department laborers succeeded in cleaning avenue "A" so that cars could pass.

All night long hundreds of men worked assidiously to discover the bodies that might be in the ruins. In the basement of the furniture factory of Henry Fuldner there was six feet of water. Three men on a raft floated, searching for the body of the missing engineer, Pius Baum, who was in the basement attending to his duties when the deluge from the tank swept away the rear of the building. His body was found under a mass of debris.

Five other men are missing and are presumably in the ruins. Among them is George Brennan, a timekeeper for W. J. Logan.

The tank that collapsed was 175 feet in diameter, 162 feet in height and the iron supports over which immense cables ran were over 200 feet in height. The lower tank into which the upper one fitted was twenty-five feet in height and rested on the mason work of the pit. This pit is 150 feet deep.

The builders were testing the strength of the tank with water pressure. Immense pipes had been pouring water into the lower tank all day.

The upper tank or cap had risen about twenty-five feet. The workmen were preparing to leave the place when the mason work of the pit crumbled away like clay. It was said that there was 8,000,000 gallons of water in the tank at the time of the break.

The water was over fifty-six feet in depth. The steel plates of the tank were rent asunder by the pressure like so much paper. The great force of the water vented itself on the rear walls of the buildings of avenue A, and all were torn away with the exception of a part of the rear of the gas company's engine house.

The masonry and brick work was thrown into the street and piled into the hallways of the houses and buildings on Avenue A side. The rushing waters cut the rear of Fuldner's furniture factory and huge slabs of asphalt were carried by the water into the buildings.

Tremendous iron beams and uprights were swept by the water as if they were so much timber and carried away down Twentieth and Twenty-first streets to the river front.

At the foot of 21st street were two barges laden with coal. The rushing water sent beams and joists with such great force against these coal laden boats that they parted their moorings. The steamer Paul Koch was also lying at the foot of 21st street and her moorings were also parted.

The arm and leg of a man were found in the entangled barricade on 21st street today. William O'Connell, who was reported missing turned up all right today.

MORTGAGE RAISED.

Presbyterian Summer School at Winona Out of Debt.

Three Rich and Full-hearted Men Come to the Rescue by Giving the Required $55,000.

Three rich men yesterday afternoon gave $55,000 to raise the mortgage on the Presbyterian summer school at Winona Lake. The money was paid to the treasurer of the board of directors of Winona assembly. Its donors are John M. Studebaker, Thomas Kane and Alexander McDonald, of Cincinnati.

Assembly directors from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Wisconsin were present at a meeting held in the Leland hotel, Chicago. They had decided to take no action toward raising the mortgage until next year when the gift was announced.

Nine principal colleges in the United States asked for permission to be represented in the various departments of science in the college the coming year and their requests were granted. The summer months are to be devoted to lectures and concerts for the entertainment of those who visit the institution, and some of the most prominent American authorities on social and economical questions will be asked to speak.

BOSTON GOES DEMOCRATIC.

Returns from City Election Shows that the Democrats Have Won.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 14.—Returns from the city election were very slow in coming in owing chiefly to the unusual number of candidates for aldermen and school committee. From figures at hand today it is assured that the Democrats have elected the street commissioners, both members of the board of apportionment, a majority of the board of aldermen and most the school committee. Boston has given a majority for the republican candidates for governor three years in succession.

The city went for license by a good majority but in many suburban wards the "yes" vote was greatly reduced as the result of vigorous work on the part of the opponents of the license system.

THE DEATHS.

Adam Buchheit, of this city, died suddenly yesterday afternoon, at the home of his son, Rev. Father Buchheit, in Wanatah. The elder Mr. Buchheit left this city last Friday for the home of his son to spend a week with him. The remains were brought to this city last night and were taken to the home of the family, 142 Union street, by Funeral Director Pelsier.

The deceased was born in Germany sixty-six years ago and came to this city when a young man. He leaves a widow and the following children: Rev. Father Adam Buchheit, Jacob, Louis, Aloysius, Lizzie and Salmee Buchheit. He was one of the oldest members of St. Paul's Catholic church, from which place the funeral will take place, probably on Friday.

CHICAGO is trying mightily to solve the question whether the street railway magnates or the people own the town.

THE introduction of the electric light in the Roman catacombs has been chronicled already. Now it is proposed to light the galleries of the great pyramids of Egypt in like manner.

THE government has ordered several warships to Havana. This is what the curbstone strategists were urging the government to do early in the war. Too much red tape again.

SO FAR the most that has been said in favor of nearly all the candidates for the United States is based on state geography. Judge R. S. Taylor has not only geography, but the finest abilities and the most exalted general fitness to urge his claims.

IT is pretty well understood that an assault is to be made on the Nicholson law at the coming session of the legislature. An effort will be made to repeal that admirable law and replace it with a law known as the Kratz measure, which has been prepared by the brewers of the state. The friends of temperance and supporters of law and good order must be on the alert. While there is no great danger that foes of the Nicholson law will be able to secure a repeal, safety should not be taken for granted.

IT is not the desire of the THE SENTINEL that anybody be legislated out of office and nothing of the sort has been urged by this paper. What THE SENTINEL has urged is that when the term of the present board of waterworks trustees expires the department expire with it and its duties thereafter devolve upon the board of public works where they properly belong. The waterworks board is a sort of municipal incubus, as recent events prove, and the public interests will be greatly promoted by abolishing that department of the city government.

THE old suggestion that Cuba and our new possessions be used as places where the negroes of this country may colonize, is to have a practical trial if the efforts of the people of that race are successful. The Rev. W. L. Grant, a negro leader of Kansas, is at the head of such a movement and is circulating a petition for the deportation of 2,000,000 negroes to Cuba, Porto Rico and Hawaii. Other petitions are circulating, asking for a million dollar appropriation from congress to carry out the plan, and the question is likely to receive at least wide attention and discussion.

MILLER, the winner of the six days' bicycle race, ate no meat or solid foods during the contest. His fare consisted entirely of cereals, liquids, fruit and eggs. Weights and measurements of every particle of food consumed by him were taken by Professor Atwater, of Wesleyan college, whose intention is to make a report to the department of agriculture at Washington on the relation of food to energy in trials of endurance. Among other things Miller consumed during the six days were forty-eight pints of prepared bottled milk and ten quarts of milk and four pounds of beef extract. He took no stimulants and his total sleep amounted to nine and one-quarter hours.

THE reports from Madrid are that Premier Sagasta will seek to have the chamber dissolved before the peace treaty is presented for ratification to the cortes, basing hope for its rejection on certain evidences of opposition to the treaty in the United States senate. There is no speculating on the lengths to which Spanish fatuousness may lead, but it is hardly to be seriously thought of that Senor Sagasta has any notion of attempting to try his case over again. It would appear from the reports that Spain believes the opposition in the United States to extention by this government of absolute sovereignty over the Philippines means that the islands may yet be returned to Spain. If that is what they think in Madrid, they are deluding themselves with the same deliberateness that they did when they underestimated the prowess of the United States just before the outbreak of the war. While there is a rational opposition in this country to permanent sovereignty over the Philippines, no public man and no party has any thought of returning the islands to Spain. The United States may keep them permanently, may govern them only for such period as may be necessary for the Filipinos to establish an orderly and stable self-government, may trade them or sell them to Japan or to some one or several of the European powers. In consideration of the future of the Philippines Spain should appreciate the great dominant certainty apparent in the situation. That certainty is that whatever disposition is made of the archipelago, sovereignty over those islands will never revert to Spain. Her sovereignty there is as extinct as though it had never been.

FAVOR HARRISON.

The city council held a meeting and discussed many matters of importance last evening. All the members were present except Councilman Hayes.

The waterworks trustees submitted a contract with the Holly Manufacturing company for a new engine and bond to cost $30,000. The company agrees to furnish a bond of $30,000 and have the engine in working position by June 1, 1899. With the contract the trustees also submitted a lengthy communication explaining their views on the question of a water supply. Councilman Scheid, chairman of the committee on waterworks, submitted an ordinance approving the contract. It was read a first and second time and then referred to the committee on contracts and franchises.

The street committee made two reports on the tunnel question. A majority report signed by Councilmen Bauer and Lennart, favored building a tunnel at Clinton street and the minority report of Councilman Haag favored building the tunnel at Harrison street. There was considerable debate on the question. Councilman Scheid objected to any tunnel and advocated a viaduct at Lafayette street. But as between a tunnel at Clinton street and one at Harrison he favored the one at Harrison. Councilman Wheelock was in favor dropping the entire matter He said the matter rested entirely with the board of public works, and he was not in favor of the council attempting to usurp the duties of the board. The matter finally came to a vote and the minority vote in favor of Harrison street was adopted by a vote of 13 to 6 and this street will be recommended to the board.

The committee on health reported against the purchase of the Abbott sanitarium as an isolation hospital and recommended that a conference be held with the county commissioners with the view of securing from them the use of enough ground on which to build an isolation hospital.

Henry M. Williams submitted a communication in which he advocated a change in the Barrett law, which would allow a property owner to pay the principal and interest on his bonds at any time after the first year. The law at present provides that after the bonds are once issued the interest for ten years must be made. Mr. Williams believes that if a property owner is able to settle at the end of any year he ought to be allowed to do so without paying interest for the entire ten years. Letters from money lenders favoring the plan were read to the council.

In another communication Mr. Williams called attention to the fact that eighteen years ago he had donated the city a small piece of land at the intersection of Calhoun street and the Piqua road, south of the city. At that time the land was outside the limits, but since it has been taken in. A deed to the property accompanied the communication, with a request that his name be not used in connection with the park.

A resolution was passed asking the board of works to take steps to open Harrison street across the Pennsylvania and Wabash railways.

The committee on streets reported that it was their opinion that the board of works should only do its duty in the matter of the Seidel alley. Twenty business men submitted a remonstrance against closing the alley.

The committee on rules regulations and ordinances reported against Councilman Hench's sign ordinance and the report was approved after Mr. Hench had protested against such action.

Councilman Poirson presented an ordinance favoring the changing of the produce market from Harrison street to Barr street. The ordinance was read a first and second time and then referred to the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances.

The councilmen voted in favor of a resolution requesting the city officers to make a quarterly reports.

Petitions were received for lights at the corner of South Wayne and Cottage avenues and at Fourth and Andrews streets. Referred to light committee.

An invitation to join the League of American Municipalities was referred to the committee on finance.

The council accepted an invitation to hear Prof. Moran discuss "The Needs of a Great City" at Kimball hall January 12. Mr. Moran comes here under the auspices of the Woman's Club league.

The request of Phil Kennedy for refunder of liquor license was referred to the finance committee.

The council decided to meet hereafter on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month and then adjourned.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

The board of public works are again discussing the opening of Fourth street and this morning they held a meeting with Engineer Randall and studied the map to determine the property which should be assessed. A bigger portion of Bloomingdale will probably come under the assessments of benefits and this means that each property owner will pay only a small sum. A tender of money will be made to the railroad company and should the corporation refuse to accept legal proceedings will be commenced to open the thoroughfare.

City Bacteriologist Drayer reports that there are only four cases of diphtheria—two on West Main street, one on Gay street and the case at the Tremont hotel.

E. H. Flynn, of Columbus, Ohio engineer of the Ohio state board of health, was in Fort Wayne yesterday to examine the Maumee river and get facts as to the pollution with sewage at the waters. The Ohio state board will present a bill to congress which will provide against the pollution of the waters of the Maumee. In fact, the bill may be made general. It was in the interest of this bill that Mr. Flynn visited Fort Wayne

He visited the sewer outlets and examined into other things he thought might pollute the water. Mr. Flynn went to Defiance, Ohio, last evening to complete his investigation.

The board of public safety met last evening and considered the case of Officer Madden, who was accused of sleeping on duty. He was found guilty and suspended from the force for twenty days.

A Heat Ecconomizer.

Any man who has a house to heat will want a NEW ERA RADIATOR when he knows the plain, simple facts about it.

These are the plain, simple facts:

An immense proportion of the heat made by the fuel we burn passes out the chimney instead of heating our rooms. "Hotter on top of the chimney than down by the stove," yes, a good deal.

The New Era Radiator is a device affixed to a stove pipe or furnace pipe to keep the heat from going up the chimney. It does it.

Your fuel bills are nearly twice as large as they would be if you used this waste heat. Don't waste it; stop it before it reaches the chimney with a New Era Radiator.

REST AND COMFORT

Will be Machinist John Jones' Future Lot.

Worked Over a Third of a Century in One Establishment—News of the Rail.

John Jones, one of the best known machinists in the city, has retired from active work and will spend his remaining years in the enjoyment of the rest and ease that his long and faithful service entitles him. Mr. Jones entered the Wabash shops as a mechanic in July, 1865, and with the exception of the days that he was too ill to perform his duties at the bench or lathe, which were very few, he worked there up to last evening. Then he notified the foreman of his intention to retire, gathered up his tools and other belongings and went home. He has been ailing for several months and the cold weather of the past week added to his discomfort and hastened the resignation he had so long contemplated. Mr. Jones is a quiet, unassuming man and it is said of him that in his long association with other men in the shop, not one of them ever had occasion to complain of his conduct towards them. He will be missed at the shops by all.

They Like the Class X.

Engine No. 273, one of the big class X built in the Fort Wayne shops for service on the mountain division of the Pennsylvania company several years ago, has been assigned to the passenger service on the west end of the Pittsburg and is now hauling trains 7 and 20 between this city and Chicago, with Engineers H. A. Darnell and "Sandy" Hilker alternately at the throttle. These engineers, who rank with the best in the country, think there is no better engine than the class X and they are glad that the officials have placed one of them in their charge. Trains 7 and 20 will hereafter be "right on time."

An Old Engineer Laid in the Grave.

The funeral of the late Robert Cairnes occurred at Crestline at 2 o'clock this afternoon under the auspices of the Knights Templar. G. W. Lowe, of this city, who was for many years acquainted with the deceased, attended the funeral. Mr. Cairnes was in the employ of the Pennsylvania company ever since its organization. He was at the throttle of the engine that hauled the construction train on that portion of the road east of Crestline and until incapacitated by the infirmities of age, ran a passenger engine on that division.

Shop Officials Have a Meeting.

W. F. Beardsley, master mechanic at Allegheny; G. P. Sweeley, master mechanic at Wellsville; T. B. Hunt, general foreman of car shops at Chicago; G. E. Geise, general foreman of car shops at Allegheny, and Abraham Fisher, general foreman of the car shops at Wellsville, are here today, to attend a meeting of Pennsylvania company shop officials.

A Shopman Hurt.

John McDorman, of 193 Calhoun street, was the victim of a painful accident this morning. He is employed in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop and while handling some car springs, one of the heavy pieces fell upon his right foot, bruising the member badly. He was taken home, where Dr. George C. Stemen attended him.

A Fireman Injured.

W. H. Perry, Pittsburg fireman, had the great toe of his left foot crushed beneath a piece of coal, which fell from the pile in the tender yesterday. The accident will cause a suspension of labor for several days, but no further damage is anticipated.

E. J. Davis has gone to Detroit to inspect new car work for the Pennsylvania company.

Charles Hiliker, the boiler lagger, has recovered from an illness and is again at work in the Pittsburg shops.

The office of master car builder of the Lake Shore shops at Norfolk, Ohio, was abolished with the retirement of J. R. Renff.

Charles E. Webster, for fifteen years chief engineer on the Lehigh Valley road, will retire from that position on January 1st.

Dr. E. F. Wagner has gone to Cleveland on business for the Pennsylvania Relief association. He expects to return home Friday.

Foreman John Kretzinger, of the Pittsburg planing mills, is suffering from a bad cold and was unable to report for duty this morning.

J. H. Singleton and H. Geerken, jr., of the Pittsburg shops, are sick. C. Wise, the teamster at the shop, is off on account of private business.

C. L. Gardner, of Findlay, an employe of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western road, was in the city today on business for the company.

A. L. Blake has returned from the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, where he was engaged in making fuel tests for the Pennsylvania company.

James Toole, an old and respected railroad man, was buried at Columbus, Ohio, yesterday, he dying of Bright's disease at seventy-nine years of age.

F. A. Tagtmeyer and Henry Woehnker, machinists, and John Meyers, boilermaker, have gone to Peru to work a few days in the Wabash railway shops.

Major Carnahan, who recently retired as joint agent of the Big Four and Wabash at Lafayette Junction, has held that position for thirty years and six months.

Michael O'Neal, of the electric works, borrowed William Bloomhuff's luck and dog yesterday and went out hunting. He reports having killed sixty rabbits.

A. B. Cline, a wealthy lumber merchant of Bluffton, has placed the contract for the interior wood work of a fine residence house with Rhinesmith & Simonson.

M. Feuchter, who has been having an unpleasant experience with an ulcerated tooth, has resumed his place in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop after an absence of a week.

The Nickel Plate has commenced to move freight into Buffalo again and expects to soon entirely remove the blockade. The yards in this city are still filled with loaded eastbound cars.

Charles Meyers, jr., has resigned his position at the electric works and tomorrow will take a position as clerk in the grocery at 124 Wallace street, just purchased by A. H. Kaiser.

M. Roberts, master mechanic of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain, has been appointed master mechanic of the whole system in Missouri and Arkansas, with headquarters at Argenta, Ark.

Westbound passenger train No. 3, due here at 4:30, was four hours late last night. There was another heavy fall of snow at Cleveland yesterday morning and the delay was due to this cause.

Thomas Stokes, of Valparaiso, engineer of a Pennsylvania work train, who had been helping out in the through freight service during the rush, was taken sick here yesterday and had to return to his home.

Freeman Godfrey, who died in Grand Rapids last week, was one of the most prominent of early railway contractors. In 1851 and 1852 he built the St. Louis, Alton and Terre Haute and later a portion of the Illinois Central.

F. Sigler, truck builder employed at the east car shops, was struck on the back of the right hand with a piece of sharp iron yesterday. The metal penetrated the flesh, severing an artery and one of the tendrons. The wound will lay Mr. Sigler up for a week or two.

Section Foremen Daniel Broaderick and Philip Ehringer received $35 and $25 respectively from the Wabash company, those sums being the first and second prizes awarded for the best section of track on the eastern end of the Wabash road.

The Illinois Central has let the contract for a new passenger station at Champaign, Ill., the building to be 183 feet long by forty wide, constructed of pressed brick and Bedford, Ind., stone trimmings. Work on the foundation was commenced last week.

Thomas Hayes, switchman, at the Nickel Plate yards, has returned from Roanoke, where he spent three or four days in hunting. He reports good luck in the chase, but brought no evidence of success in the shape of rabbits, and avers, to substantiate the statement, that

NORTHERN INDIANA NOTES.

Another daily newspaper is to be started in Valparaiso, making three.

Daniel Bevelhimer has assumed charge of the gate at the crossing of the Pittsburg road and Broadway this morning. He has just parted through a painful experience with ulcerated teeth. For two or three weeks he was confined to his home.

As a result of the busy times at the various car shops, the stock of all the principal works has advanced. Michigan Peninsular stock is now worth $80.50 per share, whereas a few months ago it was selling at $50. A corresponding gain has occurred in other car factory stock.

The Columbus-Chicago rate war was practically ended yesterday, when the Baltimore and Ohio notified the Ohio Central lines that they would no longer accept business at the reduced rate. The Baltimore and Ohio handles the business from Galesta to Chicago. Pressure by the Pennsylvania lines ended the war.

The Muldoon company created a little excitement at the Pittsburg depot this morning. The party was late in reaching the station and the train was pulling out without them, when a piercing shriek from one of the ladies attracted attention to them and the conductor had the train stopped. There were eleven in the party.

MADRID, Dec. 14.—A mob of women at Grenada today, considering that the discovery of America was, in their opinion, the principal cause of Spain's misfortunes, stoned the statue of Columbus there.

they contain Alcohol. Sick kidneys should not be fed on Alcohol—it aggravates the disease. Uthah Kidney Beans are solid; they are concentrated; and they act directly on the kidneys

Rev. Roland Hull, an eminent clergyman of the Baptist Church, residing at Williamsport, Tennessee, endorses Utah Kidney Beans for the great relief his wife received from using them. Rev. Mr. Hull is known from one end of the State of Tennessee to the other, having been in the ministry for over half a century. This good man would not endorse a medicine or anything else unless he knew beyond the shadow of a doubt that it was worthy. Therefore, such endorsements give Utah Kidney Beans a standing that no other kidney remedy in the country has. Mrs. Hull received great benefit from the use of Utah Kidney Beans; they gave her new strength—and new life. They will lift all sufferers from kidney troubles out of sick beds and restore them to vigorous health. Strength begins to return after the first few doses.

A POPULAR MISTAKE

Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion or its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach troubles, when as a matter of fact indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases. No person with a vigorous healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their beginning from poor digestion; thin, nervous people are really so because their stomachs are out of tone; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition to imperfect indigestion.

When nearly every person you meet is afflicted with weak digestion it is not surprising that every secret patent medicine on the market claims to be a cure for dyspepsia, as well as a score of other troubles, when in fact, as Dr. Werthier says, there is but one genuine dyspepsia cure which is perfectly safe and reliable, and moreover, this remedy is not a patent medicine, but it is a scientific combination of pure pepsin (free from animal matter), vegetable essences, fruit salts and bismuth. It is sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. No extravagant claims are made for them, but for indigestion or any stomach trouble, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are far ahead of any remedy yet discovered. They act on the food eaten, no dieting is necessary, simply eat all the wholesome food you want and these tablets will digest it. A cure results, because all the stomach needs is a rest, which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give by doing the work of digestion.

Druggists sell these tablets at 50cts. per package. Circulars and testimonials sent free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

President McKinley the Guest of Atlanta.

The Central Figure of the Great Peace Jubilee.

The Cabinet and Several War Heroes With Him.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 14.—Without a single hitch in arrangements and after a trip pleasant in every way, the presidential party arrived in Atlanta at 9 o'clock this morning over the Southern railway.

It was daylight before Georgia was reached and the snow clad fields that marked yesterday's passage gave way to the warm red earth of the more southern state.

The morning was crisp and colder than most of the party anticipated.

The president took breakfast with Mrs. McKinley in his own car while the cabinet officers and others walked through the train early and breakfasted in the dining car.

Small groups of early rising Georgians watched the train as it flew past the wayside stations. At Gainesville, where a short stop was made, about 200 persons were at the station and inspected the train with curiosity. From there on to Atlanta there came waving welcomes, with an occasional cheer, but there was nothing in the nature of a demonstration.

It was exactly 8 o'clock when the train bearing the distinguished guests who are to attend the peace jubilee entered the union depot in Atlanta. A large crowd was present, despite the cold weather, and a rousing cheer went up as the train came to a standstill.

The sun shone brightly and, although the air was keen, did much to dispel the chill.

Gen. Joe Wheeler was the first to alight. A strong chorus of cheers greeted the distinguished Alabamian as he stepped to the ground. Then followed the introduction of Wheeler's daughter and the members of the reception committee, he made his way to a carriage. When the president appeared on the rear platform of his car a hearty cheer was given him, breakfast forth renewed, which grew in tenant later when Mrs. McKinley came out of the car. The welcome to the members of the cabinet was very cordial. The ladies of the jubilee committee extended a greeting to the ladies of the presidential party after which the president and those accompanying him were escorted to the Kimball house. The party included the following:

The president and Mrs. McKinley, the secretary of the treasury and Mrs. Gage, the secretary of war and Mrs. Gage, the secretary of the navy and Miss Long, the postmaster general and Mrs. Smith, the secretary of agriculture and Miss Wilson, secretary to the president, J. Addison Porter and Mrs. Porter, Assistant Secretary Cortelyou and B. F. Barnes, executive clerk; Maj. Gen. Joe Wheeler and Miss Anne Wheeler, Maj. Gen. Henry W. Lawton and Mrs. Lawton, Captain Nelson, United States navy, Dr. P. M. Rixey, United States navy.

The presidential party were at once assigned to the apartments set aside for them, and the president, who was early astir on the train, devoted the morning to resting.

Mrs. McKinley also retired to recuperate for the coming duties of the day. Among those who arrived during the morning were Gen. S. B. M. Young, commanding the Second army corps, and staff, from Augusta; Hon. Geo. R. Peck, the Misses Peck and Miss Kohlsaat, of Chicago; A. J. Earling and Miss Earling, of Chicago, and Eli Gage, son of the secretary.

Mayor Collier, the gentleman of the president's party partook of luncheon in the chief executive's apartments, while the ladies at the same hour were the guests of the ladies of the jubilee committee at a delightfully informal luncheon at the ladies' ordinary of the hotel.

A few minutes before 1 o'clock the president's party were assigned to carriages and escorted by fifty mounted police and the members of Governor Candler's staff, started for the capitol.

Guns boomed the presidential salute as the chief executive ascended the steps of the capitol. At the Hunter street entrance the president was met by a committee composed of Colonel William G. Obear, acting adjutant general representing Governor Candler; Senator Hand, representing the senate, and Representative Hardwick, of the house, and conducted to the governor's parlor. Here he was received by Governor Candler and the state house officials, after which the general assembly in joint session, received the president and party and the governor.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

President McKinley made an address before the legislature, speaking as follows:

"Sectional lines no longer mar the map of the United States. Sectional feeling no longer holds back the love we bear each other. Fraternity is the national anthem, sung by a chorus of forty five states and our Territories at home and beyond the seas. The union is once more the common atlas of our love and loyalty, our devotion and sacrifice. The tidal flag again flies over us in peace with new glories which your sons and ours have this year added to its sacred folds.

"What cause we have for rejoicing, saddened only by the fact that so many of our brave men fell on the field or sickened and died from hardships and exposure, and others returning, bringing wounds and disease from which they will long suffer.

"The memory of the dead will be precious a legacy and the disabled will be the nation's care.

"A nation which cares for its disabled soldiers as we have always done will never lack defenders. The national cemeteries for those who have fell in battle are proof that the dead as well as the living have our love. What an army of silent sentinels we have and with what loving care their graves are kept.

"Every soldier's grave made during our unfortunate civil war is a tribute to American valor. And while, when those graves were made, we differed widely about the future of this government those differences were long ago settled by the arbitrament of arms and the time has now come in the evolution of sentiment and feeling under the providence of God, when in the spirit of fraternity we should share with you in the care of the graves of the confederate soldiers.

"The cordial feeling now happily existing between the north and south prompts this gracious act, and if it needed further justification it is found in the gallant loyalty to the Union and the flag, so conspicuously shown in the years just passed by the sons and grandsons of those heroic dead.

"What a glorious future awaits us if unitedly, wisely and bravely we face the new problems now pressing upon us. Our continued to solve them for right and humanity."

Expert John Smeal Arrives From Toledo to Remedy Some Defects in the Heating System.

The heating system of the Lakeside school building has been seriously at fault and these cold days have brought upon the teachers and pupil of that school much discomfort if not suffering.

The school does not depend upon gas for fuel, the burners having been replaced by grates for the use of coal. During the cold weather Superintendent Rose Lewis has watched closely the working of the system, finding that a great deal of coal was burned, lots of heat was generated, but somehow the heat was not distributed about the building. Most of the heat found its way up the chimney and skyward. This night sent the real dealer but not the teachers, pupils or school board, so John Smeal, a furnace expert of Toledo, Ohio, was sent for and he arrived this morning to probe the mystery. Mr. Smeal was formerly connected with the Lease Smeal Heating and Ventilating works, a concern that is no longer in existence.

One of Them Admits His Guilt and the Mayor This Morning Issued the Mob Order to Court.

Sheriff Meiching yesterday received word that during Monday night the Ridenour general store at Dixon, on the state line, had been robbed. He sent a deputy and the bloodhounds to the scene. Shoes, rubbers, socks, gloves, neckties, etc., had been stolen. The hounds were given the trail and started along the track to Fort Wayne, but the robbers were not found. Last night Sheriff Meiching telephoned a description of the stolen stuff to the police station. Sergeant Harkenrider went to the tramp cell and commenced to search the "hoboes." Two of them, named John Taylor and Fred Wilson, worn broad new shoes and rubbers, with them they had gloves, ties, keys, etc. They were arrested and finally acknowledged that they had entered the Ridenour store and stolen the stuff. The thieves were arraigned in police court this morning and waived examination. Mayor Scherer fixed bond at $1,000 each and the fellows went to jail. They had no money.

Two vagrants, Philip Lowis and Thomas Barnes, were sent to jail to serve fifteen days each.

GOODS IDENTIFIED.

Ephraim Ridenour and Joseph Dalton were in the city today from Dixon and Mr. Ridenour identified the stolen property. Molnosh also identified some property stolen from his saloon.

On Taylor and Wilson were found a razor, a foot rule a spring-back knife and two blue shirts which were stolen from the Ridenour store several weeks ago.

The sheriff is convinced that the prisoners are members of a gang of burglars and that they robbed the place three weeks ago.

THE HAVOC IS GREAT

Several Men Killed and Five are Yet Missing.

Was Being Subjected to a Hydraulic Test.

Eight Million Gallons of Water Burst the Heavy Steel Plates Like Paper, Flooding the Vicinity.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—When dawn lighted up the district devastated by the collapsing of the big gas tank of the Consolidated Gas company, a spectacle of ruin was presented.

Twenty-first street is barricaded by twisted and bent iron stanchions, girders and uprights piled to a height of twenty-five feet. Twentieth street is also filled with bricks, household goods and timbers piled high in one promiscuous mass. Building department laborers succeeded in clearing avenue "A" so that cars could pass.

All night long hundreds of men worked assiduously to discover the bodies that might be in the ruins. In the basement of the furniture factory of Henry Feldner there was six feet of water. Three men on a raft floated, searching for the body of the missing engineer, Pius Baum, who was in the basement attending to his duties when the deluge from the tank swept away the rear of the building. His body was found under a mass of debris.

Five other men are missing and are presumably in the ruins. Among them is George Brennan, a timekeeper for W. J. Logan.

The tank that collapsed was 128 feet in diameter, 160 feet in height and the iron supports over which immense cables ran were over 200 feet in height. The lower tank into which the upper one fitted was twenty-five feet in height and rested on the mason work of the pit. This pit is 150 feet deep.

The builders were testing the strength of the tank with water pressure. Immense pipes had been filling water into the lower tank all day.

The upper tank or cap had risen about twenty-five feet. The workmen were preparing to leave the place when the mason work of the pit crumbled away. Those who witnessed that there was 8,000,000 gallons of water in the tank at the time of the break.

The water was over fifty-six feet in depth. The steel plates of the tank were torn asunder by the pressure like so much paper. The great force of the water rested itself on the rear walls of the buildings of avenues A, and all were torn away with the exception of a part of the rear of the gas company's engine house.

The masonry and brick work was thrown into the street and piled into the hallways of the houses and buildings on Avenues A and B. The rushing waters cut the rear of Feldner's furniture factory and huge slabs of asphalt were carried by the water into the buildings.

Tremendous iron beams and uprights were swept by the water as if they were so much timber and carried away. Two blocks and Twenty-first streets to the river front.

At the foot of 21st street were two barges laden with coal. The rushing water sent beams and joists with such great force against these coal laden boats that they parted their moorings. The steamer Paul Koch was also lying at the foot of 21st street and her moorings were also parted.

The arm and leg of a man were found in the entangled barricade on 21st street today. William O'Connell, who was reported missing turned up all right today.

BOSTON GOES DEMOCRATIC.

Returns from City Election Shows that the Democrats Have Won.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 14.—Returns from the city election were very slow in coming in owing chiefly to the unusual number of candidates for aldermen and school committee. From figures at hand today it is assured that the Democrats have elected the street commissioners, both members of the board of appeal, and a majority of the board of aldermen and most the school committee. Boston has given a majority for the republican candidates for governor three years in succession.

The city went for license by a good majority but in many suburban wards the "yes" vote was greatly reduced as the result of vigorous work on the part of the opponents of the license system.

He was one of the oldest members of St. Paul's Catholic church, from which place the funeral will take place, probably on Friday.

ATLANTA is having a peace jubilee—the first of the real thing.

CHICAGO is trying mightily to solve the question whether the street railway magnates or the people own the town.

THE introduction of the electric light in the Roman catacombs has been chronicled already. Now it is proposed to light the galleries of the great pyramids of Egypt in like manner.

THE government has ordered several warships to Havana. This is what the curbstone strategists were urging the government to do early in the war. Too much red tape again.

SO FAR the most that has been said in favor of nearly all the candidates for the United States senate is based on the geography. Judge R. S. Taylor has not only geography, but the finest abilities and the most exalted general fitness to urge his claims.

IT is pretty well understood that an assault is to be made on the Nicholson law at the coming session of the legislature. An effort will be made to repeal that admirable law and replace it with a law known as the Kratz measure, which has been prepared by the brewers of the state. The friends of temperance and supporters of law and good order must be on the alert. While there is no great danger that foes of the Nicholson law will be able to secure a repeal, safety should not be taken for granted.

IT is not the desire of the THE SENTINEL that anybody be legislated out of office and nothing of the sort has been urged by this paper. What THE SENTINEL has urged is that when the term of the present board of waterworks trustees expires the department expire with it and its duties thereafter devolve upon the board of public works where they properly belong. The waterworks board is a sort of municipal incubus, as recent events prove, and the public interests will be greatly promoted by abolishing that department of the city government.

THE old suggestion that Cuba and our new possessions be used as places where the negroes of this country may colonize, is to have a practical trial if the efforts of the people of that race are successful. The Rev. W. L. Grant, a negro leader of Kansas, is at the head of such a movement and is circulating a petition for the deportation of 2,000,000 negroes to Cuba, Porto Rico and Hawaii. Other petitions are circulating, asking for a million dollar appropriation from congress to carry out the plan, and the question is likely to received least wide attention and discussion.

MILLER, the winner of the six days' bicycle race, ate no meat or solid foods during the contest. His fare consisted entirely of cereals, liquids, fruit and eggs. Weights and measurements of every particle of food consumed by him were taken by Professor Atwater, of Wesleyan college, whose intention is to make a report to the department of agriculture at Washington on the relation of food to energy in trials of endurance. Among other things Miller consumed during the six days were forty-eight pints of prepared bottled milk and ten quarts of milk and four pounds of beef extract. He took no stimulants and his total sleep amounted to nine and one quarter hours.

THE reports from Madrid are that Premier Sagasta will seek to have the chamber disapproved before the peace treaty is presented for ratification to the cortes, basing hope for its rejection on certain evidences of opposition to the treaty in the United States senate. There is no speculating on the lengths to which Spanish fatuousness may lead, but it is hardly to be seriously thought of that Senor Sagasta has any notion of attempting to try his case over again. It would appear from the reports that Spain believes the opposition in the United States to extention by this government of absolute sovereignty over the Philippines means that the islands may yet be returned to Spain. If that is what they think in Madrid, they are deluding themselves with the same deliberateness that they did when they underestimated the prowess of the United States just before the outbreak of the war. While there is a rational opposition in this country to permanent sovereignty over the Philippines, no public man and no party has any thought of returning the islands to Spain. The United States may keep them permanently, may govern them only for such period as may be necessary for the Filipinos to establish an orderly and stable self-government, may trade them or sell them to Japan or to some one or several of the European powers. In consideration of the future of the Philippines Spain should appreciate the great dominant certainty apparent in the situation. That certainty is that whatever disposition is made of the archipelago, sovereignty over those islands will never revert to Spain. Her sovereignty there is as extinct as though it had never been.

FAVOR HARRISON.

The Water Works Trustees Submit a Report for Engine and Pump—Municipal Notes.

The city council held a meeting and discussed many matters of importance last evening. All the members were present except Councilman Hayes.

The waterworks trustees submitted a report with the Holly Manufacturing company for a new engine and boat to cost $20,000. The company agrees to furnish a bond of $20,000 and have the engine in working position by June 1, 1899. With the contract the trustees also submitted a lengthy communication explaining their views on the question of a water supply. Councilman Scheid, chairman of the committee on waterworks, submitted an ordinance approving the contract. It was read a first and second time and then referred to the committee on contracts and franchises.

The street committee made two reports on the tunnel question. A majority report signed by Councilmen Bauer and Lennard, favored building a tunnel at Clinton street and the minority report of Councilman Haag favored building the tunnel at Harrison street. There was considerable debate on the question. Councilman Scheid objected to any tunnel and advocated a viaduct at Lafayette street. But as between a tunnel at Clinton street and one at Harrison he favored the one at Harrison. Councilman Woelfeck was in favor dropping the entire matter. He said the matter rested entirely with the board of public works, and he was not in favor of the council attempting to usurp the duties of the board. The matter finally came to a vote and the minority vote in favor of Harrison street was adopted by a vote of 13 to 8 and this street will be recommended to the board.

The committee on health reported against the purchase of the Abbott sanitarium as an isolation hospital and recommended that a conference be held with the county commissioners with the view of securing from them the use of enough ground on which to build an isolation hospital.

Henry M. Williams submitted a communication in which he advocated a change in the Barrett law, which would allow property owners to pay the principal and interest on his bonds at any time after the first year. The law at present provides that after the bonds are once issued that interest for ten years must be paid. Mr. Williams thinks it best that if a property owner is able to settle at the end of any year he ought to be allowed to do so without paying interest for the entire ten years. Letters from money lenders favoring the plan were read to the council.

In another communication Mr. Williams called attention to the fact that eighteen years ago he had donated the city a small piece of land at the intersection of Calhoun street and the Wayne road, south of the city. At that time the land was outside the limits, but since it has been taken in. A deed to the property accompanied the communication, with a request that his name be not used in connection with the park.

A resolution was passed asking the board of works to take steps to open Harrison street across the Pennsylvania and Wabash railways.

The committee on streets reported that it was their opinion that the board of works should only do its duty in the matter of the Seidel alley. Twenty business men submitted a remonstrance against closing the alley.

The committee on rules regulations and ordinances reported against Councilman Hench's sign ordinance and the report was approved after Mr. Hench had protested against such action.

Councilman Poirson presented an ordinance favoring the changing of the produce market from Harrison street to Barr street. The ordinance was read a first and second time and then referred to the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances.

The councilmen voted in favor of a resolution requiring the city officers to make a quarterly report.

Petitions were received for lights at the corner of South Wayne and Cottage avenues and at Fourth and Andrews streets. Referred to light committee.

An invitation to join the League of American Municipalities was referred to the committee on finance.

The council accepted an invitation to hear Prof. Moran discuss "The Needs of a Great City" at Kimball hall January 12. Mr. Moran comes here under the auspices of the Woman's Club league.

The request of Phil Kennedy for refundor of liquor license was referred to the finance committee.

The council decided to meet hereafter on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month and then adjourned.

MUNICIPAL NOTES

The board of public works are again discussing the opening of Fourth street and this morning they held a meeting with Engineer Randall and studied the map to determine the property which should be assessed. A bigger portion of Bloomingdale will probably come under the assessments of benefits and this means that each property owner will pay only a small sum. A tender of money will be made to the railroad company and should the corporation refuse to accept legal proceedings will be commenced to open the thoroughfare.

City Bacteriologist Drayer reports that there are only four cases of diphtheria—two on West Main street, one on Clay street and the case at the Tremont hotel.

B. H. Flynn, of Columbus, Ohio, engineer of the Ohio state board of health, was in Fort Wayne yesterday to examine the Maumee river and get facts as to the pollution with sewage of its waters. The Ohio state board will present a bill to congress which will provide against the pollution of the waters of the Maumee—in fact, the bill may be made general. It was in the interest of this bill that Mr. Flynn visited Fort Wayne.

He visited the sewer outlets and examined into other things he thought might pollute the water. Mr. Flynn went to Defiance, Ohio, last evening to complete his investigation.

The board of public safety met last evening and considered the case of Officer Maiden, who was accused of sleeping on duty. He was found guilty and suspended from the force for twenty days.

A Heat Economizer.

Any man who has a house to heat will want a NEW ERA RADIATOR when he knows the plain, simple facts about it.

These are the plain, simple facts:

An immense proportion of the heat made by the fuel we burn passes out the chimney instead of heating our rooms. "Better on top of the chimney than down by the stove," yes, a good deal.

The New Era Radiator is a device affixed to a stove pipe or furnace pipe to keep the heat from going up the chimney. It does it.

Your fuel bills are nearly twice as large as they would be if you used this waste heat. Don't waste it; stop it before it reaches the chimney with a New Era Radiator.

REST AND COMFORT

Will be Machinist John Jones' Future Lot.

Worked Over a Third of a Century in the Establishment—Notes of the Rail.

John Jones, one of the best known machinists in the city, has retired from active work and will spend his remaining years in the enjoyment of the rest and ease that his long and faithful services entitles him. Mr. Jones entered the Wabash shops as a machinist in July, 1856, and with the exception of the days that he was too ill to perform his duties at the bench or lathe, which were very few, he worked there up to last evening. Then he notified the foreman of his intention to retire, gathered up his tools and other belongings and went home. He has been ailing for several months and the cold weather of the past week added to his discomfort and hastened the resignation he had so long contemplated. Mr. Jones is a quiet, unassuming man and it is said of him that in his long association with other men in the shop, not one of them ever had occasion to complain of his conduct towards them. He will be missed at the shops by all.

They Like the Class N.

Engine No. 373, one of the big class N built in the Fort Wayne shops for service on the mountain division of the Pennsylvania company several years ago, has been assigned to the passenger service on the west end of the Pittsburg and is now hauling trains 7 and 20 between this city and Chicago, with Engineers H. A. Durnell and "Sandy" Fulker alternately at the throttle. These engineers, who rank with the best in the country, think there is no better engine than the class N and they are glad that the officials have placed one of them in their charge. Trains 7 and 20 will here after be "right on time."

An Old Engineer Laid in the Grave.

The funeral of the late Robert Cairnes occurred at Crestline at 2 o'clock this afternoon under the auspices of the Knights Templar. D. W. Lown, of this city, who was for many years acquainted with the deceased, attended the funeral. Mr. Cairnes was in the employ of the Pennsylvania company ever since its organization. He was at the throttle of the engine that hauled the construction train on that portion of the road east of Crestline and until incapacitated by the infirmities of age, ran a passenger engine on that division.

He was taken home, where Dr. George C. Stemen attended him.

M. Roberts, master mechanic of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain, has been appointed master mechanic of the whole system in Missouri and Arkansas, with headquarters at Argenta, Ark.
